About Me

With over a decade of experience as a paramedic, I am currently transitioning to a new career where I can continue to make a meaningful impact.

Now, I apply my expertise in technology and UI to assist those in need. Armed with a UI/UX certification, I blend my healthcare background with user-centered design principles, fostering creativity and innovation.

I prioritize user experience and well-being, leveraging mu diverse background to drive positive change.